14 August 2019

ENAIRe, Spain's air navigation manager, managed 220,719 flights in July, 2% more than in the same period in 2018.

The highest traffic figure from 2018 was surpassed twice: on 20 July (7,425 flights) and 13 July (7,398 flights).

Traffic grew at a slower pace than in the previous year, both in July (+2.0% vs. +3.1% in 2018) and on aggregate (+4.0% vs. +5.2% in 2018), as well as with respect to previous months in 2019.

This effect is due largely to the decrease in international flights, mainly in the Canary Islands (-9.2% vs. July 2018) and the Balearic Islands (-3.3% vs. July 2018), and to a slowdown in domestic flights compared to the previous year, which registered a growth of 5.4% in July compared to the 7.4% reported in 2018. On aggregate, this growth was 4.9% vs. 9.9% for the same period in 2018.

In July, domestic traffic increased by 5.4%, with 41,285 flights. Overflights (which do not take off from or land at a Spanish airport) totalled 46,058, a 6% increase. The number of international flights stands at 133,376 (-0.3%).

The number of flights managed in July at all of ENAIRe's Control Centres were: Canary Islands (+0.7% and 29,970 flights), Madrid (+2.4% and 112,211), Seville (+4.9% and 41,545), Barcelona (+1.6% and 110,407) and Palma (-2.1% and 46,804).

Note. The total number of flights operated by ENAIRe's network does not necessarily match the total number of flights managed by each Control Centre (CC). This is due to the fact that a flight is registered according to the air space and route it crosses. For example: a flight that departs from Adolfo Suárez Madrid-Barajas Airport to Barcelona-El Prat is registered in the Madrid CC and the Barcelona CC.

Cumulative from January to July

ENAIRe has managed 1,238,633 flights so far this year, 4% more than in the same period in 2018.
