

The ENAIRE Foundation announces grants for 150,000 euros to preserve Spain's historical aeronautical heritage

- The recipients of this aid must be non-profit entities with a tax residence in Spain and have a collection of at least 4 historic aircraft
- These grants, which are being offered for the second year, will be awarded to three entities as follows: 90,000 euros for the applicant with the highest score; 50,000 and 10,000 euros for other two

Madrid, 9 March 2022

The ENAIRE Foundation presents its second annual call for grants to preserve Spain's historical aeronautical heritage.

The recipients of this aid must be non-profit entities with a tax residence in Spain that have a collection of at least four life-size historic aircraft. They aircraft can be in use, on the ground, undergoing repairs or overhauls, or static aircraft on display. They must also be on display to the public for outreach or information purposes, both in person and through a website, as set out in the rules in the Official State Gazette.

Through these nationwide grants, the ENAIRE Foundation seeks to support the preservation of Spain's aeronautical heritage and help disseminate aeronautical culture by assisting in the conservation of historic, life-size aircraft, whether operational or not, for the public's enjoyment and knowledge.

The total amount of this second package is 150,000 euros distributed in three grants: the first, worth 90,000 euros, for the recipient with the highest score; and, the remaining two, worth 50,000 and 10,000 euros, for the second- and third-place recipients, respectively.

For more than 25 years, the ENAIRE Foundation has focused much of its efforts on keeping Spain's historical aeronautical heritage alive, by collaborating with various entities in keeping with its founding objectives.

Applications must be submitted electronically by 7 April via the platform integrated into the ENAIRE Foundation website.

The work of the ENAIRE Foundation

The ENAIRE Foundation is a cultural organisation linked to ENAIRE. Its objectives include the fostering of aeronautical culture and the preservation, expansion and spreading of ENAIRE's artistic heritage. This heritage consists of a notable collection of Spanish and Ibero-American art, spanning from the second half of the twentieth century to the present day, and encompassing more than a thousand works of all types. In addition, since last July, the ENAIRE Foundation has had a permanent venue for the ENAIRE Collection of Contemporary Art at the Naves de Gamazo in Santander.

About ENAIRE

ENAIRE is the air navigation service provider in Spain.

As a company of the Ministry of Transport, Mobility and the Urban Agenda, it provides en route control services for all flights and overflights from five control centres in Madrid, Barcelona, Seville, Gran Canaria and Palma, as well as approach services to every airport in the country.

In addition, 45 control towers receive ENAIRE's communication, navigation and surveillance services, and 21 airports, including the country's busiest, rely on its aerodrome control services.

ENAIRE is Europe's fourth largest air traffic manager. Since 1 January 2022, it has chaired the A6 Alliance, a coalition of air navigation providers responsible for over 80% of European air traffic, and which is seeking to modernise the air traffic management system. It is also a member of other international alliances promoting the Single European sky, such as SESAR Joint Undertaking, SESAR Deployment Manager, iTEC, CANSO and ICAO.
